Acclaimed Architect to Speak at Beverly Hills Design Review Commission
Allan Greenberg to discuss residential architectural designs

Beverly Hills, CA – The City of Beverly Hills Design Review Commission will host prominent architect Allan Greenberg at its next meeting. Considered by many as one of the most revered revivalists of American classical architecture, Greenberg is nationally recognized for his unique and comprehensive approach to design.

The first American to receive the prestigious Richard Driehaus award for Classical Architecture, he is listed as one of the top 100 architects in Architectural Design Magazine. Greenberg is regarded as an authority on maintaining classical design, having worked on new construction, commercial renovation and residential projects both nationally and internationally.

Some examples of his work include, the Treaty Room Suite inside the U.S. Department of State in Washington, D.C., the Brooks Brothers building in Beverly Hills, Princeton University, and private residences for such celebrities as Martha Stewart and Harrison Ford.

Meeting Details:

- Date: Thursday, November 4
- Time: 1:00 p.m.
- Location: City Hall, Meeting Room 280A (next to Council Chambers)
